Work Experience

Mansueto Ventures (FastCompany.com/Inc.com) Manhattan, New York

WEB DESIGN INTERN (August 2009 - Present)

During this time I have worked with the site designers and production department to update and refresh the website's of both Fast Company and Inc magazine. Some of my duties involved creating banner ads, slide shows, web pages for new sections and special editorial packages, designing e-blasts, and preparing and resizing images for the websites.

Pisarkiewicz Mazur & Co. Manhattan New York

FREELANCE GRAPHIC DESIGNER (April 2010-Present)

At Pisarkiewicz Mazur & Co. I have worked on a variety of projects assisting in rebranding and refreshing of brand identities. I have worked on stationary packages, website layout and user interface, designing e-blast, creating brochure templates, and other various projects in both web and print design.

Nickelodeon Manhattan, New York

ADVERTISING DESIGN INTERN (January 2009 - May 2009)

While at Nickelodeon I worked with a team of Art Directors, and helped to further ideas and create comps for upcoming advertisements. Some of my duties included designing web banners, magazine advertisements, and logo designs. From my point of view it was interesting to see how a project is developed and finalized when dealing with such a large company.

Flyleaf Manhattan, New York

GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERN (May 2008 - June 2008)

During my internship at Flyleaf, I worked on designs of both print and web, while gaining insight into the interaction between the design studio and their clients. Some of my design duties included creating collateral to match already existing identity systems, furthering initial designs to match the requests of the client, and creating designs from simple mock-ups and sketches.

Fresh Epic Tennis Wear Manhattan, New York

FREELANCE DESIGNER (Summer 2007)

I have worked with Fresh Epic Tennis Wear creating flat colored vector art images for their athletic tennis wear line. Some of the images are inspired by past tennis players and equipment.

Neighborhoodies.com Brooklyn, New York

INTERN (July 2006 - August 2006)

Using my knowledge of Adobe Illustrator I created images and worked with text, creating large cutting sheets of text and images and putting together orders so that they could be pressed onto items of clothing.
